Raises certain points in regard to the revival rules of recruitment, for instructions Ref: para 1 in the P.U.D.

1) The reply seems to be in affirmative. viz. Officials promoted from Class II to Class F in promotion vacancies will, perhaps, have to be continued after cessation of such vacancies, in other vacancies becoming available subsequent to the promotion vacancies, [not disturbing the candidates selected direct from the approved or C.R.B List prior to the promotion of officials from Class II]. This should perhaps be continued, if necessary, by displacing
the candidates selected from the approved list in vacancies arising subsequent to the promotion vacancies first referred to in the same manner in which recruits once entertained are to be kept on in service in other vacancies even though the particular vacancies in which they were recruited in the first instance have ceased.
The position will be different in cases where the promotion vacancy ceases and

and there has been no other vacancy in the same class and series subsequent to this. In such a case the promoted official will have to revert to his previous appointment in the lower class by displacing the recruit entertained in the consequential vacancy last vacancy in that class.

2) This seems to be in conformity with the spirit of item (b) of para 5 of the G.O. no. 6-105-C.R.B. 1-34-1, dated 3-7-1934 and rule 24 of the revised rules of recruitment appended to the G.O. referred to. This point is for kind orders.

yes. The reply to his query is in the affirmative.

3) Refer para 2 of the P.U.D.

The reply seems to be in affirmative viz. Whenever the vacancy against which a recruit has been appointed ceases and there is no other vacancy in the same class and kind against which he could be continuing his case will have to be preferred to that of the candidate whose name appears next to him in the approved list for appointment in the next future vacancy becoming available some time later after the first named recruit is thrown out of service. Orders are solicited on this point also.

Yes: This is clear.

4) ~~The reply seems to be in~~ ~~negative~~ as, under the revised rules recruit is the unit and not the vacancy.
When a recruit is thrown out in the circumstances detailed in the above sub para and is appointed elsewhere in another department after he is so thrown out in the department or does not turn up for appointment in a future vacancy arising in the Department, his name may not be taken into account ~~and~~

OFFICE OF THE CHIEF CONSERVATOR OF FORESTS IN MYSORE.

Bangalore, dated 12/4/1935

FROM

B. V. RAMAIAENGAR, Esq., B.A., Chief Conservator of Forests
in Mysore, Bangalore.

TO

H. V. RAMASWAMY, Esq., M.A., B.L., General Secretary to the Government of H.H. the Maharaja of Mysore, Bangalore.

THROUGH

The Secretary, Central Recruitment Board, Bangalore.

Sir,

With reference to the Revised Central Recruitment Board rules, I have the honour to request you to be so good as to enlighten me on the undermentioned points which are likely to arise while giving effect to the revised recruitment rules:-

(i) Whether the officials promoted from class II to class I in promotion vacancies, have to be continued after cessation of such vacancies, in other vacancies becoming available or if necessary by displacing the candidates recruited in vacancies arising subsequent to the promotion vacancies first referred to in the same manner in which recruits once entertained are to be kept on in service in other vacancies even though the particulars vacancies in which they were recruited in the first instance have ceased. If the reply is in the negative, does it follow that the recruits entertained in the consequential vacancies should make room for the reverting officials?

(ii) What is the procedure to be adopted when the vacancy against which a recruit has been appointed ceases and there is no other vacancy in the same class and kind against which he could be continued? Is his case to be preferred to that of the candidate whose name appears next in the approved list, for appointment in the next future vacancy becoming available some time after the first-named recruit is thrown out of service.

(iii) When a recruit under the new rules is thrown out in the circumstances detailed in the above sub-para and is appointed elsewhere in another Department after he is so thrown out in the Department or does not turn up for appointment in a future vacancy arising in the Department, is his case to be taken into account or not for fixing up the number of appointments to be made from the "B" and "A" lists ?

(iv) Whether the officials who have been entertained under the old Central Recruitment Board rules and are continuing against - temporary vacancies and whose names have been included in the approved lists issued under the revised Central Recruitment Board rules, have to be appointed in vacancies which have occurred since 1st July 1934. If the reply is in the affirmative how are their salaries to be regulated in their new appointments in the undermentioned cases and if they are not agreeable for the change how are their cases to be dealt with ?

(a) An official entertained under the old Central Recruitment Board rules against a temporary clerical appointment on a fixed pay of Rs.40/- and lasting long is being continued against the appointment. His name stands included in the I Class list of clerks, Accountants, etc., the bottom appointment of the class in the Department being that on Rs.25-2-45. When the said official who has been in receipt of a pay of Rs.40/- is appointed against the latter vacancy he can only be started on the minimum pay of Rs.25/- in the latter post under the provisions of the Mysore Service Regulations. The official may not be willing to forego a sum of Rs.15/- in his present pay just for the sake of bringing his appointment under the purview of the revised Central Recruitment Board rules.

(b) A recruit who was entertained under Government Order No. 3103-05/CRB. 15-31-1 dated 4th December 1931 as a clerk in grade - Rs.25-2-45, has been drawing a pay of Rs.35/- against a temporary vacancy lasting long. His name also stands included in the I Class list of clerks, Accountants, etc., the bottom appointment of the class being the same as that against which he was originally recruited. If his appointment under the new rules has to be made, he could only be -

be started on Rs.25/- in grade Rs.25-2-45 as the Government Order of 4th December 1931 referred to above, is not in force now. The official may not be agreeable to forgo Rs.10/- out of his present pay merely for the sake of bringing his appointment under the purview of the revised Central Recruitment Board rules.

From

Sir,

With reference to your letter No.E.266-1063/34 dated 15th April 1935 raising certain points in connection with the revised rules of recruitment, I am directed to state as follows :-

(1) Point (1) in your letter. The answer is in the affirmative. Officials promoted from Class II to Class I in promotion vacancies have, after the cessation of such vacancies, to be continued as far as possible, in other vacancies (in the same class and series) becoming available, ^{and} if necessary, by displacing the candidates selected from the approved list, in vacancies arising subsequent to the promotion vacancies first referred to. If there has been no other vacancy in the same class and series subsequent to the promotion vacancy which ceases, the promoted official has to revert to his previous appointment in the lower class, the recruit/~~entertained~~ in the the last vacancy in that class being thereby displaced.

(2) Point (1) in your letter:

Whenever the vacancy against which a recruit has been appointed ceases and there is no other vacancy in the same class and kind against which he could be continued, his case will have to be preferred to that of the next candidate in the approved list, for appointment in the very next ~~future~~ vacancy becoming available. (Vide also para 10 of the Supplemental Instructions issued with O.M.No.6447-546/C.R.B

27-34-1 dated 23rd February 1935.

Point (iii) in your letter.

Under the revised rules the recruit is the Unit and not the vacancy. When a ^{recruit is} Unit on the cessation of a vacancy is thrown out in the circumstances noted above and is then appointed elsewhere in another Unit or does not turn up ^{for} for appointment in a future vacancy arising in the Unit in which he was first appointed, a fresh recruit (i.e., the next candidate) from the approved lists is to be appointed the vacancy being taken into account for purposes of classification. If he turns up and is continued, ^{in vacancy} is not to be taken into account for purposes of classification.

4. Point (iv) (a) and (b) in your letter :-

Officials who have been entertained under the old Central Recruitment Board rules and are continuing against temporary vacancies and whose names have been included in the approved lists may be continued in the previous vacancies so long as those vacancies last and may, if they are members of backward communities, be even confirmed therein, as per rules. If, during that period, their turn from the approved lists come, they may be deemed to have been appointed under the lists and continued in their original appointments and if and when their original appointment cease they may be provided and continued in vacancies in preference to those appointed subsequent to them from the approved lists. In such cases, the question of pay does not arise and they could ordinarily get only the pay of the appointment that is available at the time.

SIR,

(1) Point (i) in your letter.—The answer is in the affirmative. Officials promoted from Class II to Class I in promotion vacancies have, after the cessation of such vacancies, to be continued, as far as possible, in other vacancies (in the same class and series) becoming available, of (and if necessary, by displacing the candidates selected from the approved list, in vacancies arising subsequent to the promotion vacancies first referred to. If there has been no other vacancy in the same class and series subsequent to the promotion vacancy which ceases, the promoted official has to revert to his previous appointment in the lower class, the recruit entertained in the last vacancy in that class being thereby displaced.

(2) Point (ii) in your letter.—Whenever the vacancy against which a recruit has been appointed ceases and there is no other vacancy in the same class and kind against which he could be continued, his case will have to be preferred to that of the next candidate in the approved list, for appointment in the very next vacancy becoming available. (Vide also para 10 of the supplemental instructions issued with O. M. No. 6147-546—C. R. B. 27-34-1, dated 23rd February 1935.)

(3) Point (iii) in your letter.—Under the revised rules the recruit is the unit and not the vacancy. When a recruit is, on the cessation of a vacancy thrown out in the circumstances noted above and is then appointed elsewhere in another unit or does not turn up for appointment in a future vacancy arising in the unit in which he was first appointed, a fresh recruit (i.e., the next candidate) from the approved lists is to be appointed, the vacancy being taken into account for purposes of classification. If he turns up and is continued, the vacancy is not to be taken into account for purposes of classification.

(4) Point (iv) (a) and (b) in your letter.—Officials who have been entertained under the old central recruitment board rules and are continuing against temporary vacancies and whose names have been included in the approved lists may be continued in the previous vacancies so long as those vacancies last and may, if they are members of backward communities, be even confirmed therein, as per rules.
